

Out of Context

2020

Assignment: own project
Theme: human body & water
Material: glass
Size: various
(Still in process)

These forms made out of glass refer to images I recall from how I see body parts under water. The movements are so quick and not always completely recognizable. The glass figures are in balance because of their ability to float.

