

Water & Glass

2018

Assignment: translating the feeling of being underwater to glass

Material: glass

Size: 5between 10cmX20cm

A representation of the experience of being under water by portraying the depth and stratification in combination with the fascination for air bubbles.
This work allows the viewer to enjoy an image that I experience on a daily base while practicing for swimming competitions.
Over the years, water has be come an important part of my life,

